*Training farmers and ag businesses
how to avoid lawsuits, labor law violations, delays and highway violations,*

Why make a mistake in managing your employees that could result in a fine, lawsuit or jail time. The Mid-South Agricultural Labor Seminar will provide you with some of the best legal advice in the country on how to avoid labor and highway violations. It will also inform you on the latest issues impacting agricultural labor. The information provided at this seminar will greatly assist farmers in all forms of agriculture, agricultural processors and agribusinesses. Those in agriculture who employ domestic and foreign workers should attend this outstanding seminar with their administrative staff and supervisors.

Comments from Previous Seminars:

- » "This is positively the best seminar I have ever attended."
- » "We all employ workers, now I know how to do it right."
- » "So much useful information from such fantastic speakers."
